CHANGE DESCRIPTION

Cree will begin shipment of all SMD High-Brightness LEDs in a new moisture barrier bag (MBB) with no zip lock feature near the opening. A comparison photo of the current and new MBBs is shown below.

IMPACT OF CHANGE

Beginning July 10, 2013, Cree will begin shipments of all SMD High-Brightness LEDs with the new moisture barrier bag. Customers may receive both the current and new MBB in the same shipment until Cree's inventory of the old MBB is depleted.

No customer action is required.
