Description of change:	To secure the supply of the above mentioned products Gemalto M2M is introducing a 2nd source flash from JSC, additionally to the existing flash from Micron. The 2nd source flash is mechanically and electrically compatible to the current single source flash. To allow SW handling of the JSC memory the boot loader had to be adjusted. This is reflected by an updated ARN 01.000.10. Functional firmware has not been changed, i.e. there is NO functional change. The existing approvals are not affected.
Scheduled date of introduction (cw/year):	Start of shipments ex warehouse: December 2016
Timing note:	This change has been introduced for same product with Release 2 already February 2016 (PCN ID 284).

Quality assurance measurements:	The new version fulfills all internal test requirements according to our Quality Management process and philosophy.
