Change of ST 2,5-Housing

ST 2,5 GEH

- Due to capacity expansion in China a new injection mould is required
- A new design in the moulding will be realized
- The new design will improve the stability of the housing for extrem conditions
- In other production locations, the old design will be valid till a maintenance of the moulding tool will be necessary
- Over the time all other production location will get successively the new design
- technical rates and dimensions remain the same
- Mixing of inventory is possible
